Dear Candidate,

The Research Directorate, Maharaja Ganga Singh university congratulates you on your success in the prestigious MPCET-2016

As per the UGC Regulations 2009 and the University Research Ordinance, it is mandatory for a Ph.D. research scholar to undergo a Ph.D Coursework of Six months' duration. Accordingly, the Ph.D. Coursework for the successful candidates of MPCET 2016 commences on 16.08.2017 You are, therefore directed to report to the undersigned on 16.08.2017 at 11 a.m. in the Conference Hall, Administrative Block of Maharaja Ganga Singh University located at Jaisalmer Road, Bikaner. It is to be brought to your notice that your presence in the Inaugural Session is a must to complete the required official formalities. Besides, 75% attendance in the Ph.D. Coursework is compulsory, failing which you will not be registered as Ph.D. Scholar and will have to redo the Ph.D. Coursework. It is also worth mentioning here that attendance for every period will be marked separately and if you remain absent even in one period you will be considered absent for the whole day.

The time-table, the other details of the Coursework will be intimated to you on the First Day of the Course. You may enquire about the board and lodging facilities (on payment basis) on the University Campus either from Dr. Surendra Kumar Godara (9414762571) or Dr. Manju Sikhwal (9252037629) or Shri Rajat Bhadu (9929891234)

In case you have not got your documents verified by Research Directorate, the same are to be produced at the time of commencement of Ph.D. Coursework, failing which you will not be given entry to the Course.

Looking forward to seeing you soon.
